THIS POCKET NEGOTIATION CARD WAS CREATED BY HOUSE KAMPILAN

This Pocket Negotiation Card was created as a starting point and a quick reference for negotiating play/scenes between consenting adults. We strongly recommend that all parties consider using a more extensive negotiation form whenever possible.

Pocket Negotiation Card

NCSF EXPLICIT PRIOR PERMISSION

1. All parties agree to specific activities and intensities BEFORE starting
2. All parties are fully able to freely consent without coercion, force, deception, or manipulation.
3. No one will be seriously injured (no permanent marks, dismemberment, or risk of death)
4. Ability to stop the activities at anytime and everyone is free to withdraw consent at any time.

Questions about play/scene/activities:

- Why are we doing this and for how long?
- What type of activity and what goal or experience does everyone want to experience?
- Who will be involved and what will be their role?
- What is everyone's experience level and ability?
- What safewords/gestures will be used and what do they mean?
- What activities will be done and by who?
- What equipment/toys will be used, by who and and what part of the body?
- What safety measures will be used?

Questions about safety

- Are all parties fully able to provide and agree to enthusiastic consent with full awareness of all activities that will be done?
- Have all parties vetted each other, established safe words, defined limits, and know what to do in case of emergency?
- Have all parties discussed any pertinent medical concerns, triggers, and any other potential concerns that may affect these activities?
- Have all parties discussed potential risks, after care, potential marks, expectations, etc?
